

POLSINELLI ONLINE SOLUTIONS for Home Care

With increased scrutiny on the home care industry, are you confident you are in compliance with the federal, state, and local government laws that impact your agency?

Polsinelli Online Solutions for Home Care (POSH) provides an online, affordable, one-of-a-kind experience for home-based care employers of all sizes. POSH subscribers have access to a comprehensive set of customizable up-to-date forms, tools and resources at the federal, state, and local levels. This invaluable service helps home care business owners throughout the business cycle from pre-hire through termination stay in compliance with the everchanging complexities of the industry's regulatory and legal landscape.

POSH subscriptions include:

- Documents, forms, and guidance developed and maintained by attorneys with deep industry insight
- State-specific employment law summaries for home care employers
- Arbitration agreements
- Background screening materials
- Industry news and analysis of breaking legal and regulatory developments impacting your business
- Invitations to exclusive events, and much more

Upgrade to premium level subscriptions for access to:

- State-specific handbooks for home care employers
- State-specific forms (such as offer letters, employment applications, severance agreements) for compliance with federal, state and local government laws that include helpful comments and guidance to customize the materials to suit your unique business needs and practices
- COVID-19 resources with caregiver and client materials plus OSHA compliance and CMS Vaccine Mandate Rule packages

Your POSH subscription can be tailored to meet the current needs of your business and expanded as your organization grows ...

POSH subscribers also receive a preferred-rate on select Polsinelli legal services in these areas:

Business Formation	Licensing and Regulatory Support	HIPAA, Data Privacy and Security
--------------------	----------------------------------	----------------------------------

Angelo and the home care team at Polsinelli have created a best-in-class resource with POSH. This is essential for any home care agency operating in more than one state. POSH is easily designed for non-lawyers to access and understand, and covers the wide range of labor and employment, occupational safety, and other regulations at the federal, state, and local level. Our franchisees can quickly access what they need with the on-demand download capability and don't need to spend hours trying to re-create wheels themselves. This gives them more time to grow their businesses and provide meaningful support to their employees and clients.

- Michael Cocco, General Counsel, SYNERGY HomeCare

Contact Us

Join us every other Wednesday from 2:30PM- 3:00PM ET to learn how POSH can help home-based care employers stay compliant. Click here or scan above to register!

For questions, email online.solutions@polsinelli.com and we will get in touch with you!

